INTRO

In its 4th year going-for-GOLD as it grows faster than dandelions from an idea rooted firmly in the boozy back garden of The Residence's (former and doomed location), The Verger's Cottage. Hackney Wicked Art Festival continues its mission to fuel East London's thriving art scene opening its gates for 3 days of extravaganza. Showcasing work from local and international artists; through galleries, open studios, pop-up exhibitions, site specific installations, one-off events and much more.

We welcome new residing galleries See Studio and Performance Space and will mourn the old as Main Yard Gallery and The Lord Napier silently await their fate.

The focus of this year will be to emphasize a global projection of this art community. Taking eyes firmly off the Olympics!

Join us under the shadow of the Hackney Wick sign, raise a glass and tour the remnants of this wondrous industrial labyrinth.

"It's like a post-apocalyptic world where only the artists survived!" Ben Rist 2010

GALLERIES & POP-UP EXHIBITIONS

1. The Hackney Pearl

Friday and Saturday open until 2am Sunday
Live acoustic music, BBQ, cocktails and normal Hackney Pearl good times all day.
The Hackney Pearl will also be turning number 9 Prince Edward Rd (where the sandwich shop used to be) into one picture gallery P.Maxima Gallery.

5. KWICK LOVE

Friday 29 July 6-9pm
Saturday 30 - Sunday 31 July 12-6pm
quick/kwik!
Adverb: At a fast rate; quickly: "She'll find some place where she can make money quicker"; "Get out, quick!"

Adjective: Moving fast or doing something in a short time: "some artists are particularly quick learners"; "he was always quick to express his thoughts"

Following on from the successful show last year entitled "Hackney Wickedpedia", Artist-Curator Leo Cohen is proud to present "KWICK LOVE", a show which brings together a spectrum of hard working London-based artists who are all active at different paces.

8. SEE STUDIO

FIGHTING FIRE WITH ICE CREAM
Alex Chinneck
Friday 29 July 6-11pm
Saturday 30 - Sunday 31 July 10am-11pm
Artist Alex Chinneck celebrates everyday construction materials by enlivening them with a new purpose and appearance. For this exhibition the artist has removed them from their utilitarian context and reshaped them into abstract art. Inspired by the landscape that surrounds him, this body of work reflects the artists time spent living and working within London's industrial peripheries. Through his art the unfired materials of basic construction are given a second life.

9. Liquid Studio Gallery

29 July - 30 July from 8pm
Mixed exhibition showcasing the work of Ernst Altmann, Peter Currey, Lennie Lee, Mick Martin, Lynn Medcalf, Brian O'Leary and Frances Sander.

Special live Tagtool drawing performance featuring Austrian psychrock band, Supra+ with Frances and Maki (Tagtools). Other artists and performers T.B.A.

Gallery Throne by Ernst Altmann / Performance Supra+ with Frances

THE TOMORROW PEOPLE
Friday 29 July 6-10pm
SPECIAL LIVE EVENTS

*8pm Special Performance by Artist Victoria Gray
*9pm Experimental musician and artist Aina O'Dwyer performs harp.

Now in its fourth year Elevator Gallery brings together a hand-picked selection of recent arts graduates and early career artists on the spot of art stardom. As with previous years expect the unexpected from an overflowing bath and surreal frozen food landscapes to an artist scriffing a chair. Painting, Installation, Sound Art, Drawing, Photography, Video and Sculpture.

Radhika Agrawal, Gareth Barnett, Jan Hakon Erichsen, Victoria Gray, Giulia Lazzaro, William Marriott, James Jackson Newcomb, Aine O'Dwyer, Haruka Ono, Megan Knight, Liz West, Kim Wild. Selected by Snootie Hexagon and Simon Reuben White

16. Schwartz Gallery

A-L-L-O-T-M-E-N-T-S 2011
Thursday 29 July - Saturday 21 August 2011
Thursday - Saturday 12-6pm
The tenants of 92 White Post Lane are invited to participate in a unique collaborative project that divides the gallery space into 'allotments'. These spaces will be chalked out and numbered prior to the works being delivered to the gallery. The gallery becomes a 'meeting place' questioning notions of curatorial responsibility and artistic pedigree.

Curated by Patrick Michalopoulos and Imael Eiri. Artists: Eva Bachmann, Adam Beale, Sam Bailey, David Blackmore, Dan Bennett, Liam Bierschenk, Rodolph de Sallis, Imail Friali, Phillip Hennessy, Vibeke Luthar, Kirk Merritt, Patrick Michalopoulos, Harinda Minnar, Lorye Monkeyshoes, Nerissa Morrice, Scotta Rourke, Alice Palmer, Erik Perera, Ashling Smith, Russell Thoburn, Funda Yapan.

16. Schwartz Gallery Project Space

Label de Salis presents Sottoporte
21 July - 21 August 2011. Thurs - Sat 12-6pm
Rodolph de Sallis has used his Label de Salis vehicle to transform the Schwartz Gallery Project Space into a depository. Glittering in hyperspace, it is a cartebianc melange of objects found, purchased and inherited; a festival of re-evaluation, appropriation and juxtapositioning.

17. Performance space [

Friday 29 - Sunday 31 July 10am - 10pm
[Performance space] is artist-led studio and project space outside mainstream education and gallery structures. We cultivate live work that critically and physically pushes the boundaries of body and space. We are a place where work can unfold without restraints of curation, duration or space; committed to supporting challenging and difficult work that embraces performance art as an ever-evolving medium.

18. Stour Space
